

JATRI - Journalism Training and Research Initiative

Title : Welcome to JATRI

Description : Journalism Training & Research Initiative (JATRI) is devoted to improving the state of journalism in Bangladesh by providing training and support to journalists and to researchers investigating social and economic issues of importance to society. It will promote the use of international best practices and professional standards through its research, publications, meetings and competitions.